which are insaparably connected with the recollections of Sting, and which marred the Derby prospects of the best (wo-year-old that ever can on the British turf. Nor is it an insignificant and Servants' R. ome. circumstance that, while the result of this year's contest establishes a proud superiority for the progeny of Stockwell, the ewnership of the three foremest horses in the race should, in Mr Sutton, Lard Allesbury, and the Duk soi Beauford, attract notice to three as honourable names as can anywhere he found among the patrons of the Turf. But if the Derby anniversary of 1866 pussesses | dam Street, suitable for an office or dwelling. many features of interest and encouragement for the lovers of a postime as markedly characteristic of England, as the ball fight is of Spain, there are other incidents and peculiarities of the Turf which Apply to are pregnant with warping. We hear of widestaving blood which supplied us with such mures TOOR a term of years, with early possession as Renswing and Alice Hawthorn-such horses as Waxy, Whalebone, and Trainp-is disappearing from amongst us. It is doubtful whether the ugs situated between the Agra Bank and Comp. three which finished first in the Derby will prove the Bank of Hinduston, China, and Japan. The ns good stayers as their sire Stockwell sh wed bimself to be in the Boncaster St. Leger of 1852. into Offices or Chambers. or their grandsire the Baron in the St. Leger of 1515 .. But it is at least underliable that of the numerous delte and fillies samually put into training a smaller and smaller per centage is found able to stay over a distance of ground. The eaget competition of needy men, who desire to bring their two-year-olds out upon the earliest possible recession, and to convert speed into guiness, is telling prejudicially upon that class of horses of Mescantile firm. which we live to vaunt the excellence.
